BIOGRAPHY - DISCOGRAPHY

Career overview

- Graduated in 1997 from the University of Theatre and Film Arts in Budapest with a degree in operetta-musical performance, studying under Miklós Szinetár.
- With a pre-contract scholarship, he joined the Petőfi Theatre of Veszprém for two seasons, where he also played leading roles.
- He has performed at the following theatres:
 - Budapest Operetta Theatre
 - National Theatre of Miskolc
 - Éva Ruttkai Theatre
- In 2002, he founded his own traveling theatre company, the Sziget Theatre, based in Szigetszentmiklós. Their productions have been met with great success across Hungary and even internationally. The company performs approximately 150 shows per year.
- From 2003 to 2005, he was the lead singer and host at Budapest's Moulin Rouge, entertaining both Hungarian and international audiences four nights a week with revue performances.
- Between 2006 and 2012, he served as director, artistic director, and actor at the Hungarian Equestrian Theatre of Komárom.
- In 2013, he established the National Equestrian Theatre, where he currently acts as director, producer, and stage director.
